de-DE-Ruhrgebiet: Denkfabrik mit offenem Dach

Thinking Space with No Ceiling

This site isn’t a stage. It’s a public thinking space — open, transparent, unpolished. If you’re reading here, you’re watching me think. Not something finished. But something becoming.

The texts show how thoughts emerge, collide, and clarify — even with version history. And if you feel like it, dare to think for yourself. Because that ability never disappears — it just gets quieter in today’s world.

Once a piece is ready, it gets published — in my English author voice on Medium.com. That’s where you’ll find everything that grew from Klartext (de-DE-Ruhrgebiet) into PlainText (en-US-PlainText) — and carries resonance beyond the Ruhr. Of course, only if you feel like it 😉

You can find me there at https://medium.com/@cs_33924.
