Responsible for the content of this private website under § 5 of the German Telemedia Act (TMG):

Christian Schmidt

This website is a personal, non-commercial space. It exists to share thoughts, express opinions, and reflect on language, stance, and technology. There’s no advertising, no paid content, no hidden interests. Just text, image, and resonance — without commercial intent.

Technology & Privacy

This site runs on a self-hosted DokuWiki system — deliberately simple, deliberately transparent. No tracking. No algorithms steering attention. The infrastructure is built to support, not distract.

For more information on privacy, see the Privacy Policy.
